FRIEND

EMPOWERING AUSTIN'S TECH COMMUNITY

The Austin Forum on Technology & Society hosts free, comprehensive programming on the emerging and transformational technologies shaping our lives, community, and society. To host influential and impactful events that are open and accessible to all, we rely on the generosity of forward-thinking organizations and individuals who realize the importance of elevating technology awareness and advocacy and of fostering connections and collaborations.

Whether through year-round contribution or a one-time gift, your support ensures our community can explore and understand the profound impact of tomorrow's technologies. We deeply appreciate your partnership.

AUSTIN FORUM

ON TECHNOLOGY & SOCIETY

FRIEND

Friends of the Forum are dedicated community members who believe technology information, education, networking, and collaboration opportunities strengthen the Austin community and should be accessible to everyone. By making a one-time tax-deductible contribution of $100 or more, Friends help keep our events free for all attendees, regardless of their financial means. A single donation grants lifetime recognition as a valued supporter of our mission.

BENEFITS

Community Recognition

- Persistent, Ubiquitous Recognition: Listed forever as a supporting Friend of the Forum website and in the presentation events. All new Friends are welcomed in the Austin Forum weekly newsletter, social media channels, Slack community, and the next presentation event (if not wishing to be anonymous).

COST

- $100 one-time donation (tax-deductible)
- Once you're a Friend, you're a Friend for life!
