ON TECHNOLOGY & SOCIETY

VOLUNTEER

EMPOWERING AUSTIN'S TECH COMMUNITY

The Austin Forum on Technology & Society hosts free, comprehensive programming on the emerging and transformational technologies shaping our lives, community, and society. To host influential and impactful events that are open and accessible to all, we rely on the generosity of forward-thinking organizations and individuals who realize the importance of elevating technology awareness and advocacy and of fostering connections and collaborations.

Whether through year-round contribution or a one-time gift, your support ensures our community can explore and understand the profound impact of tomorrow's technologies. We deeply appreciate your partnership.

AUSTIN FORUM

ON TECHNOLOGY & SOCIETY

VOLUNTEER

Volunteers of the Forum are local individuals who generously contribute their time, energy, and skills to power Austin Forum events and operations. By supporting event setup, attendee check-in, community engagement, and digital operations, volunteers play a hands-on role in keeping our programming smooth, welcoming, and accessible to everyone.

BENEFITS

Community Connection & Recognition

- Hands-On Involvement: Gain direct, behind-the-scenes experience at Austin Forum events.
- Expanded Network: Connect directly with local tech leaders, speakers, organizers, and fellow passionate community members.
- Event Recognition: Verbal appreciation from the emcee and name listed on slides at supported events.

COST

- No financial cost: your contribution of time and talent directly powers our community mission.
